

Class – 7th

Subject : English

Revision-1

(Honeycomb : L- 8 Fire : Friend & Foe , , L-9 A bicycle in Good Repair, Poem – Garden Snake)

Fill in the blanks

- 1) Lowering the temperature below the flash point extinguishes the fire.
- 2) When carbon and hydrogen are combined with oxygen, they can cause fire.
- 3) The temperature at which every fuel burns is called the flash point.
- 4) The fuels available in natural form are coal.
- 5) Fire is our both a friend and foe.
- 6) Both the author and the friend had decided to go for a long bicycle ride.
- 7) The author's friend shook the bicycle violently which the author did not like.
- 8) The friend started playing with the front wheel.
- 9) Cycle goes a little stiffly after lunch.
- 10) Ball bearing was lying topsy-turvy in the middle of the path.
- 11) The poet ran away due to the presence of a snake .
- 12) The snake rouses the sense of In the human beings fear.
- 13) The mother told that a garden snake was harmless.
- 14) The popular belief is that the snake-bite kills a human being.
- 15) The term used for the movement of the snake is wriggles.